Floods.

VIRGINIA, Ill., April 12.—Low lands along the Illinois and Sangamon rivers are completely flooded and the rivers still rising. Both rivers are higher than they have been for years. Much damage is being done to crops.

National League Games.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The 17th season of the National Base Ball League opens to-day, Boston playing at Washington, Brooklyn at Baltimore, Pittsburgh at Cincinnati, Cleveland at Louisville, Chicago at St. Louis and New York at Philadelphia.

The Indians Get the Best.

KINGSTOWN, O., April 12.—The publication of plans showing the Indian allotments has caused consternation, and many home seekers are discouraged and are returning home. They find that the Indians have captured the most valuable lands, and that what is left is not worth contending for, but their places are rapidly being filled by other settlers.

Penn. Democrats.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 12.—Delegates and visitors to the Democratic state convention which opens to-morrow are already arriving in large numbers, and by morning the city will contain a larger number of Democrats than at any time in its history. Among the prominent arrivals are state Senator George Ross, the accepted Democratic leader in the state senate, and who will be one of the delegates at large to the national convention. He says the delegates will favor Cleveland's nomination.

Post Libraries.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—It having been reported to the war department that necessity exists for offering prompt and safe facilities for persons who desire to make contributions for the intellectual and moral welfare of the enlisted men of the army, the secretary of war authorizes the adjutant general to receive, free of expense to the sender, such contributions of books, periodicals, pamphlets and papers as may be sent to him by philanthropic persons for distribution to the army, especially to troops in the far west.

National Politics.

CHICAGO, April 12.—A morning paper says Vice-President Morton is to be renominated by President Harrison at the Minneapolis convention. That fact was practically determined at a secret meeting of Republican magnates in Chicago, yesterday. It was a private gathering, but rumors of the business done were plentiful. Senator Sawyer, of Wisconsin; Senator Allison, of Iowa; Jesse Spaulding, a representative of Senator Cullem, it is stated, and others, participated in the conference. An interesting feature of the meeting, which was current, is a statement that, as a result of the conference and in the event of the Republicans winning, Allison and Cullem will be rewarded with portfolios in President Harrison's cabinet. It is asserted that at the meeting Senator Sawyer acted as the envoy of the president.

A Hot Local Fight.

TELENTON, N. J., April 12.—Local elections are being held to-day throughout the state. Hitherto most of these elections have been held on the same day as the state elections, but in February last a bill was passed applying to cities, towns, boroughs, no place being excepted, making the second Tuesday in April election day for all local elections. In many places the liveliest kind of a campaign has been waged. In Jersey City there is a terrific fight between the Davis faction and the friends of Allen McDermott, the Democratic candidate for mayor. Ex-Sheriff Davis and his followers blame McDermott and Boss McLaughlin for the defeat of Mayor Orates Cleveland when he was a candidate for re-nomination. They are also sore because no effort was made to save the convicted ballot-box stuffers from jail. The excitement has been added to by the fact that the April grand jury is composed largely of the friends of Davis and Cleveland, who, it is said, are pressing indictments against the Guttenburg race track people for the purpose of bringing McLaughlin and McDermott to terms. Each element will try to down the other at the polls to-day.

The Hebrew Great Feast.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Throughout the civilized world the members of the Hebrew race commenced at sun-down last evening the annual celebration of the feast of the Passover, or the Jewish lent. For the next ten days they will refrain from partaking of meats or farinaceous food. It is a season of fasting and of cleansing as old as the race itself. In this city the observance is so rigorous that Shomars, appointed by the Rabbis, are placed in charge of the Passover departments of the stores which furnish sustenance to the Hebrews during this period. It is their duty to see that everything is from fresh and newly opened packages. Each order must be delivered with great care and in separate boxes. Unleavened bread, cassava, cakes, potato flour, dried fruits and sweet wines are about the only articles of diet permitted, and the supplies for the entire Passover are stored in the Hebrew dwellings before the hour of the commencement of the season.

A World's Silver Conference.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The Springer bill to authorize the holding of an international monetary conference to settle the silver question, provides that the congress shall meet in Chicago August 3, 1893, and continue in session at the will of the majority.

Twenty-one delegates are to represent the United States, seven to be chosen by the president, seven by the speaker of the senate and seven by the speaker of the house. The president's appointees are to be citizens not holding office. The others are to be senators and representatives. The appointments are to be divided as nearly as possible between the political parties. The secretary of state and the director of the mint are to be additional delegates. The president is authorized to invite foreign governments to send representatives, each government to determine the number of its representatives, but to be entitled to only one vote. The secretary of state is to call the congress to order, and is to preside until a permanent officer is elected. The conference is to formulate and submit for the approval of the governments represented a uniform system and nomenclature of coinage and of weights and measures, and also, if feasible, an international agreement as to the relation to be maintained between gold and silver, and as to the uniformity in weights and fineness of the coins of each metal and the adoption of coins that would be current at the same value in all countries. The presidential appointees are to receive $5,000 a year; the others no additional compensation.

A NEW SETTLEMENT.

Water the First Requisite at Mitchell Station—Extensive Improvements in Progress.

Hon. Amado Chavez, superintendent of public instruction, is home from a trip to Valencia county, along the A. & P. road, and he has much to say of the new town of Mitchell, a few miles west of Chavez station. Many improvements are in progress. A number of reservoirs have been completed and the town company is boring for water and will go as deep as 2,000 feet if necessary. An aqueduct will also bring to the town an abundant supply of pure mountain water from the Cotoacana canon five miles away. The vanguard of American civilization has arrived in the shape of two saloons. The station at Chavez will be removed to Mitchell in a few days; also the post-office. It is expected that by fall the new town will have at least 1,500 inhabitants. From that place the Mitchell Bros will construct a railroad through the Zuni mountains, and arrangements have already been made to ship 35,000,000 feet of lumber per year. Large saw mills will be in operation in a few months and a door and sash factory will be established without delay. In all probability a new county will be created by the next legislature with the county seat at Mitchell.

The New Mexico agricultural college is preparing to institute extensive experiments in production of cane sugar. This indigenous bulb that now grows wild nearly everywhere in New Mexico, is becoming so important an article of commerce as a farming agent that any increase in production by cultivation would add greatly to the growing resources of the territory, and the experiments at Las Cruces will be everywhere noted with great interest.
